Robin Gonzalez

Software Engineer

robinmg1@hotmail.com

Profile

Software engineer with 5+ years of experience developing software that still being used by real clients taking care always about performance and scalability thinking in huge traffic and big demand that customers can generate. I always tried to generate quality over quantity I take seriously best practices per language, framework and architecture. I'm proactive and self-motivated always looking for newest technologies, I love challenges and solve algorithms problems to improve my software skills.

Employment History

Aug 2017 — Present

Full stack Software Engineer at LogicaMx

At this startup I develop the project structure and software architecture using AngularJS, Angular+, React, C# .Net and Entity framework. Our platform is for hospitals to manage medical records and financial business (ERP, HIS, LIS, RIS).

Dec 2015 — Aug 2017

Software Engineer at Samsung Electronics México

I worked with multiple VOD applications launched in Samsung store, collaborator on TOAST framework based on cordova architecture to get multiple platform compatibility. Project leader of two content management system developed by my team, both are to create, manage, schedule and play multimedia content by the SmartTV or an LED matrix. I developed the structure taking care about performance and huge traffic that customers can demand, we always took care of continuous improvement to get better platform.

Aug 2015 — Dec 2015

Jr .Net Developer at Grupo Tress Internacional

.NET full stack developer of web applications for human resource administration. I migrated an entire platform from legacy code to a modern web application, this platform is still in use by thousands of employees in Mexico.

Education

2010 — 2014

UABC

Computer Engineer

Details

México
+(52)-6645318723

Links

Github - https://github.com/jokerm

Skills

JavaScript

AngularJS

React

Git

C#

Typescript